Best Practices for People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

“Gaining an Edge through New Waves of Opportunity”

Crowne Plaza Louisville Airport
830 Phillips Lane
Louisville, KY
February 19 – 20, 2020

The Arc of Kentucky will host its 2020 Annual Conference at the Crowne Plaza Louisville Airport in Louisville, KY, on February 19-20, 2020 in collaboration with The Kentucky Department of Education, Jefferson Co. Parent Resource Center and Anderson Co. Early Childhood Regional Training Center. The Arc of Kentucky is a private, non-profit, multi-purpose volunteer organization with local chapters across the state, made up of self-advocates, family members, friends, professionals, business leaders, and others who are dedicated to attaining and ensuring a better life for Kentuckians with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families.

We are very excited about this year’s conference, “Gaining an Edge through New Waves of Opportunity” Best Practices for People with Intellectual and/or Developmental Disabilities. We anticipate approximately 400 registrants from across the state. These registrants will include individuals with disabilities, family members, community leaders, advocacy organizations, education professionals, service providers, and policymakers. This conference will afford you a valuable opportunity to describe your product and services to those individuals. The conference program will include a list of all exhibitors and contact information.

If you are interested in this marketing opportunity and want to prepare an exhibit, please complete the attached application by Tuesday, January 21, 2020, and return to: The Arc of Kentucky, 706 East Main Street, Suite A, Frankfort, KY 40601; fax: (502) 875-5226; phone: (502) 875-5225 or 1-800-281-1272; Email: Sherri@arcofky.org. Attached also is a fact sheet that provides quick references regarding exhibit booth information.

We look forward to hearing from you and being a part of our annual conference. If you have any questions, please let us know.
